LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER CLAIMS SCIENCE CAN SPEED UP ELECTION RETURNS, BUT CAN'T AFFECT RESULT.

Editor's note: The Little River philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Little River, as best we can figure, must have been looking at somebody's television set, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:

The trouble with science is that it never can live up to its claim.

I came around to this conclusion once more this week while I was reading a newspaper article about the preferential primaries as they're called which are being held in some states to keep the people in the habit of voting. I guess, as I've never been able to see anything else they accomplished.

If you recall, when the radio was supposed to revolutionize politics, it was going to enable every man to sit in his own home and listen to the candidates and make up his own mind and this would result in a better quality of office-holder, the same as happened when they gave women the vote.

Well, radios kept getting better and better, but the quality of the office-holder remained the same. That is, some good ones got elected all right, but about the same proportion of sorry ones got in also.

Well, they said, radio does allow you to hear a candidate, but where it failed was in not giving you a chance to see him. You've got to see a man to really size him up, they said.

So, here came television. And what happens? As you know, this fellow from Tennessee put television back on its heels by coming up with a new weapon, the common handshake. No picture tube no network interruptions, no antenna, just a handshake.

I never have understood the political magic of the handshake, but I know it works, as I've seen lots of men who got into office with no other qualification.

Now you'd think that television would be the answer to the handshake, but television may be one of the worst enemies a candidate ever had. When he comes up to you in person and grabs your hand, you don't have much chance to really study him, by the time you get a good look at him he's already moved on to the next hand, but when he's talking on television, you don't have much else to do except watch him pretty close, as there aren't over four or five politicians in the world who can read a speech and hold your attention longer than two or three minutes. Half the time you figure somebody else wrote his speech, and the other half, you figure he wrote it himself, and neither method is guaranteed to build confidence. When it comes to elections, about all science has achieved is the ability to tell you today who won yesterday without waiting a week or so.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Milam History A Tale Of Bravery Rich Resources

The History of Milam County, soon to be off the Naylor presses written and compiled by Mrs. Lelia McAnally Batte is a documented work which allows today's younger generation and those of the future to more fully appreciate their county and state by learning of the obstacles which had to be overcome, and to study the rich characteristics of pioneer men and women as well as the resources Milam County had to add to the magic change of savagery into civilization.

In the foreword of the work, Mrs. Batte reminds that no longer do people live in homes hewn out of the forest primeval. Prefabricated homes are built in a day. No longer are clothes and food and medical care most difficult to obtain.

Today, Mrs. Batte points out, we sit in our homes by a radio or television set, relatively free of fear or danger, no longer do savage Indians bear down upon helpless people and destroy them. The cry of warring marauders is no longer heard.

But if we pause and remember the pioneers who laid the foundation for our great county in this Empire State we shall have cause for thanksgiving and gratitude and seek to find that flower of peace and happiness which is our heritage.

MILAM COUNTY
Milam County, named for that brave man, Benjamin Rush Milam, stands today among Texas' other counties unsurpassed for her resources, her people possessing all that makes up a full life for a great people.

The history of Milam County is a story of rare heroism, patriotic endeavor and the red blood of pioneer men and women.

Milam's history may serve to light the path for coming generations and cause them to re-evaluate their heritage.

In forthcoming issues of the Cameron Herald will be excerpts from the history of Milam County. The first of which will naturally cover the life of Benjamin Rush Milam.

Revenuers Don't Begrudge Those Little Tax Refunds

Latest Internal Revenue Service reports show that the Austin District office has collected $413,600, 000 so far this year. The figure for the same period last year was $410,000,000.

Refunds of course reduce these collection figures. Tax collectors believe a number of these refunds go to taxpayers who don't declare all of their dependents for withholding purposes on their jobs. This assures them a refund when they file returns and list all their dependents.

While not encouraged, the practice is not officially frowned on, either. "Who wants to begrudge a taxpayer a little financial life around taxpaying time," one collector asked.

Handling refunds is a complex business, but the district office at Austin, Texas, manages to process as high as 12,000 a day during the peak weeks.

The district director pointed out that the deadline for paying taxes is April 15 and that all taxpayers who have not filed should avoid the last minute rush by filing now.

Annual Roundup At A&M In June Of 4-H Clubbers

Texas 4-H club members will gather on the campus of Texas A. and M. College on June 12-14 for their annual Roundup. They have been holding such meetings at this location for approximately a half century.

A trip to the Texas 4-H Roundup has long been recognized by 4-H members as an outstanding achievement and one that is long remembered. The 1956 meetings, according to Floyd Lynch, state 4-H leader, will provide opportunities for the delegates to get training in leadership and subjects of their choice and also further acquaint them with the facilities of the college.

State winners in the different judging and team demonstration contests will be determined on June 13. Delegates will select and participate in one of the 17 subject-matter short courses being offered. The training in agriculture and home economics subjects is designed so those receiving the training may pass it on to others when they return home.

County delegations will be limited to two boys, two girls and adult leaders or county extension agents must accompany a county group. District winners from a county are not counted as delegates, according to Lynch.

The first session is scheduled for Guion Hall on the evening of June 12. The contests are to be held on the 13th and the short courses commence on the same afternoon and continue through the 14th. The popular share the Fun Festival is scheduled for the night program on the 13th.

Presentation of awards to all state contest winners will be made the afternoon of the 14th. The "Chuckwagon Feed" and special entertainment at Kyle Field will wind up the third day of activities.

Lynch says all county extension agents have details on the meeting and advises 4-H members and leaders to start making plans now to attend.

A story briefly told and well illustrated on how one youth organization, the 4-H clubs of Texas, is striving to improve its services to rural youth was recently released by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The new bulletin is titled "Club Work" and it is available from the offices of local county extension agents or from the Agricultural Information Office at College Station, Texas. The number is B-813.

The attractive publications printed in the 4-H colors of green and white emphasize that youth through clearer thinking, greater loyalty, larger service and better living are leading the way to greater achievements in their farming and home making demonstrations and activities.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Next meeting of the group will be with Mrs. Clayton Barton who lives on the Salem Road, on April 26.

They Travel "In Class"

Our high school correspondent says that Economics and Geography students are going in for "grass roots" studying.

They're going to charter buses and take off on Operation See-For-Yourself—have a ten-day look at some of the things they've been studying about.

As I remember, it was hard to keep your mind on schoolbooks at this time of year. Today's kids can give in to that old urge to bust out of the classroom—with a clear conscience. Wish they'd take me along.

From where I sit, it doesn't hurt us adults, either, to get out and see how the rest of the country lives. We find the "typical American" doing everything from herding cattle to flying planes... with everything from steak to chowder for his favorite dish... everything from beer to butter-milk for his favorite beverage. And the more we study our differences the more we learn how alike everyone is underneath.

TELEPHONE TALK

SUN POWER

Probably all of us can remember flashing messages with a mirror on a bright sunny day. Or maybe you burned holes in dry leaves.

Well, we were all using "sun power." A simple form of it, yet. But it was still power from the greatest source of energy man has ever known, the sun.

For years, we've been reading about how men have been trying to capture and put to work the sun's energy. And telephone scientists, just in the past few months, have come up with the first workable device to do the job. It's called the Bell Solar Battery.

Believe it or not, the heart of the Bell Solar Battery is common, ordinary sand. From this sand, silicon disks are made which can convert sunlight into electrical power.

How will the Bell Solar Battery affect your telephone service? Really, we don't know yet. But right now, an experimental installation of solar batteries is supplying power on rural telephone lines in another part of the country. This experiment may give us some answers.

Regardless of the future of the Bell Solar Battery, it is already proof of one thing. Telephone scientists will go to any lengths to find ways of improving your service.

This time they've even brought the sun into the act.

THE MILES FLASH BY

When you pick up the receiver of your telephone to make a Long Distance call you're turning hours of days into seconds.

That's because a Long Distance call puts you in touch almost instantly with friends or relatives in a distant city.

As well as being the best way to keep in touch any time, a Long Distance call is also a happy thought for a special occasion such as a birthday, anniversary, wedding, or just a family get-together. You can talk as long as you like because Long Distance rates are low, especially if you call station-to-station. Remember, also, to call by number. Your calls will go through twice as fast.

WELCOME MAT IS OUT

From time to time, individuals or groups stop in at the telephone company to learn how we do things - and to see what's behind their telephone service.

If you'd like to do the same with friends or a business or social group, just call me. I'll be happy to plan a visit for you.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

THE CAMERON HERALD

"My Name Is Allen . . . Anti Vice Campaigner Hits Cameron Friday"

My name is Allen, I am not a candidate for any office. . . was the announcement which emanated from loud speakers atop an automobile on the streets of Cameron last Friday in one of the most unique campaigns of this or any general election year.

The campaigner was William Prescott Allen, publisher of the Laredo Times.

He had previously come into the Cameron Herald to announce his plans to use a loudspeaker in the city and wanted to know if any laws prohibited same. In this regard he dropped a hint that in the smaller towns he "respects" the law to save both time and money. He saves his defiance acts for the large cities where all the news services, television and radio coverage will give him free advertising in his one man (and his wife) crusade against crime and corruption in the great state of Texas from the Capitol to the precincts.

"I began this tour because I believe God asked me to go out and call on the good people, the leftists, the rightists, the middle-of-the-roads, in one campaign and with one purpose - to defeat every corrupt politician in the state." This quotation is contained in a broadside which he passes out.

To underscore the uniqueness of his campaign the Laredo Publisher asks the people to come out to the car and take his "Campaign literature" and they do. His wife pokes it out the back window. He calls the people by name as, co-incidentally, he did the name of Grady Allen, (no known relationship) on the loudspeaker and shakes their hand if traffic conditions permit. To the District Clerk he said "You MUST be a good man," as Grady Allen got back into his car.

The publisher of three newspapers, one in Colorado, and for a year now, one in Juneau, Alaska, stating that his campaign to date has cost him $20,000 in the coin of the realm, earned the hard way (in the publishing business). But this isn't all of it. He has a long way to go to cover this "Once-proud" state.

He says he has run a number of full page advertisements in the city newspapers and plans one in Washington D. C. soon.

Allen's Clean Up The State campaign is given a visual aid boost in the use of brooms atop his vehicle which are symbolic of the operation "Big Sweep" which he proposes not only in the field of rotten politics but in its allies dope peddling, insurance racketeers, and those responsible for the veterans land scandals. "I'm tired, says Allen, of corruptionists calling everybody who opposes them a Communist or some "initial," like ADA, NAACP, DAC, CIO-AFL and mean that you are not loyal.

"I much prefer to see the state cleaned up than dried up," he writes in his broadside and adds "I'm not ashamed to say 'I love God."

He personally told us "I am not telling anyone how to vote, on any issue or for any man. . . I just believe that the good people are still the majority if they will only be aroused, he said, and added, the signs are very encouraging.

Allen's Campaign picture shows him peering from behind bars. . . city jail in Fort Worth where he got his greatest "Campaign contribution."

Milano Farm Youth Awarded Four Year Scholarship By Alcoa

A Milano farm youth who has his eye on a college degree in chemical engineering Monday evening was awarded the 1956 Alcoa Foundation Scholarship for the Rockdale Works.

Jerald Deene Wise, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ruban Wise, is winner of the third $2000 scholarship awarded at Aluminum Company of America's Rockdale Works. His selection was announced by Hinton H. Pruett, County Superintendent of Schools and Chairman of the Alcoa Foundation's Selection Committee.

The scholarship is awarded each year to a graduating senior whose mother or father is employed at the Rockdale Works.

The decision of the Selection Committee is based on scholastic achievement and promise, financial need, and personal characteristics such as leadership and ability and on the results of college board examinations taken by each of the candidates.

Pruett said that this year's ten candidates were an exceptionally well balanced group of young men and women.

Young Wise plans to enter Texas A & M College this fall after a summer's work on the family's farm in Milano. He will graduate with the high school class on May 18 and study chemical engineering at A & M.

His father has been an Alcoa employee since August, 1952. He is employed as a baking furnace operator in the Carbon Plant. Other members of the family, in addition to Mrs. Wise, are Melvin Douglas, 14; Linda Ruth, 7; and Don Jay, 2.

To be eligible as a scholarship candidate, a student must be the son or daughter of an Alcoa employee and be a graduating senior in the upper one-half of his class or have a C-plus average.

Each winner receives an annual grant of $500 for four years, so long as his scholastic and personal standards are maintained at a high level.

Coaches Corner

By Homer Tompkins

Spring events are nearing their climax with a fine turn out of athletes. After spring football the coaches were impressed with a few things and were a bit pessimistic about others. One thing important to us was that our passing had improved considerably and we found out what our new formation needed. We began this spring to add the "Spread" formation which permits the ends to play out about nine yards from the tackles on the fullback (strong side). The fullback is some three yds. from the tackle and one yard back of the line of scrimmage. The halfbacks are three yards from the fullback and the end is three yds. outside him thus making the weak side ends eight yards away from the tackle. This formation is used by T.C.U. under Dutch Meyer puts much pressure on the tailback.

The Tailback should be a high type fellow who can run and pass efficiently to promote success on the field. A boy with character, as he must be a leader in every respect because judgement of plays and quick decisions must be made by him.

We are trying to develop boys who look to us as the probable boys for the tailback job such as Bobby Elliott and Jesses Kirk although we have others in mind for the position.

The spread formation is rather wide open from the fact that there is much running, especially by the guards and backs. Currently Monroe Bayer, Paul Hoelscher, Ferrol Angell and Johnny and Raymond Tepera along with several other new boys and squad-men of last season are at the guard posts. Good tackles are essential as well as are good centers. Gene Holliman, Johnny Solomon and others have been working at tackles with Jim Smalley working on the center department Bobby Glenn, Lee Hollas, Bowley and Ray Green did most of the work at ends.

Fast backs are very important in the backfield. Herbert Marak, Guy Dillon, Quincy Rinn, George Zarosky, Johnny Davis, and others show promise here.

We are definitely weak on reserves due to the fact many of our boys are so young. We can see many possibilities in our youth at our school so we are spending all the time we can in developing them. At present Coach Jackson is directing the track programs and Coach Young is working with the track team and our football Physical Education program for development of our younger athletes.

Coach Stuth is directing the development class and also the Jr. High prospects.

I am currently working with baseball and in the whole program there is no place for loafers. We will have at least 75 or 80 boys out for football next fall.

The administration and school board have been most cooperative in aiding us in the development of a greater athletic program.

Realizing that skill, desire and team play are very important, we, as coaches recommend to our athletes to think and speak correctly, be rugged individuals, but also clean, to think victory, to uphold the school they fight for in every respect, to grow intelligently, spiritually and morally and never quit and finally give 100 percent effort for the FIGHTING YOEMEN.

With parent cooperation and the public pitching in we'll make our school and team impressive.

'55 Highlights Is Instructive Film For Alcoa Employees

A series of meetings designed to give Aluminum Company of America employees a more thorough understanding of their company will begin April 25 at the Rockdale Works, according to Works Manager R. R. Sugg.

The Annual Report meetings are part of a company-wide program for all Alcoa employees, Mr. Sugg said. The meetings are held during working hours and attendance is on a voluntary basis.

A discussion of the developments at the Rockdale Works will show how its people and products fit into the over-all scheme of the company. Color slides of employees and outstanding events at the plant will illustrate the important place of these employees in the company. An explanation of company-wide operations will focus on the far-flung activities of Alcoa's 55,000 employees.

A question and answer period will follow when employees will have the opportunity to ask questions concerning the company's activities.

As part of the program there will be a sound color movie titled "Highlights of 1955." The film is a record of Alcoa's major operations during the past year. A booklet called "Alcoa Reports-1955" will be given each employee.

The financial and production achievements of the company also will be discussed.

"We hope to give our employees a complete picture of Alcoa operations and objectives," Mr. Sugg said. "Only with intelligent and informed personnel can the company continue its rate of progress and growth."

Army Pioneering In Guided Missiles Offers Advancement

The year 1956 offers few opportunities for a person to be a pioneer, but in the U. S. Army it is possible to pioneer a new field in the rapidly expanding Army Antiaircraft Command.

Guided missiles and other complex electronic weapons are becoming the military career fields of the future. Men with training in these fields will find rapid advancement available both in the U. S. Army and with civilian industries which specialize in electronic equipment.

"A high school graduate, who can pass the aptitude examination can enlist direct for subsequent assignment to the Army Antiaircraft and Guided Missile Center, Fort Bliss, El Paso, Texas," said Sfc L. A. Dermody Army recruiter in Temple.

"Each applicant may indicate the metropolitan area preferred. Since the Army Antiaircraft Command operates in continental United States, most men receive stateside assignments upon completion of advance training," Sgt. Desmody added.

Both non-prior and prior service men are eligible to apply for the advanced training available at Ft. Bliss.

If accepted, they have a choice of several technical training courses, many of which are accepted for college credits. It is excellent training for either a military or a civilian career.

City Council Progress Report From April 1952 To April 1956

SUBMITTED BY O. B. HORSTMANN

The regular work which is covered by routine details and work that is familiar to you as it is regular work performed by preceeding Councils so this will not deal in that part. This report is designed to bring to you a report of projects other than these.

It was our thinking that our City had fallen a victim to a lethargic content with its aged civic units such as dilapidated sidewalks narrow streets - street dust nuisance - utilities being out moded wiring - inadequate sewer lines - public resistance to sanitary connections - park facilities needed - low water pressure and small mains, lack of pest control bath house at swimming pool badly needed - fire plugs too small and too few - illegal traffic lights and signs - naming and numbering and marking of streets - house numbering co-operation with the State Highway Department to build and locate large center here - and others.

The Councils were in agreement on the need and one by one they were started and completed in addition to the regular operations. The concern of the Council was at all times to accomplish any needed project provided we could so fund it as not to increase the taxpayers load. This at times put our Finance Committee on the spot for figuring ways and means but they came through with the able assistance of the City Secretary, Mrs. Neomi Needham. Also they City had been aware of and recognized the need for housing growth. In line with this thought it has assisted in many ways to encourage building and industry.

This was evident in the following projects - Chandler Addition - Millam Motel - Cameron Compress Warehouses - Graham Addition and most recently the Country Club Estates.

The work I will enumerate is the job that is the result of all working together, and only in this manner could we have achieved 1952:

any amount of success.
Completed the City Hall - previously started Completed the 36 Highway right-of-way, - previously started Purchased and operation of fogging machine z
Purchased and start street paving machiner and paving

1953: Street paving project by property owners and City - Approx. 60 blocks - completed.
Sidewalk cut back by property owners and city Sewer line from Santa Fe depot to North west Cameron Water tower with 6" extensions to North east Cameron and other extensions Installation of Mercury Vapor Lights in business section and on Highways

1954: Approved 6" fire plugs over Cameron Approved signal lights for street crossings
Modern bath house for swimming pool
Participation In Youth Athletic Program
Completion of Street name and marking.
Completion of House numbering Correction of overhead utility wiring by telephone and light companys

1955: Completion of Water main extension - East Cameron Completion of Sewer Trunk Line to East Cameron Improvement of Wilson-Ledbetter Park
Assist in re-location of Latin-American Festival grounds Completion of Water main to Southwest Cameron Completion of Rite-of-way for safety corner at Batte and Nolan Street Completion of Rite-of-way for paving and gutters - Main down Crockett to Highway 36

Ford goes First!

In Performance

At Daytona, Ford won the Manufacturer's Trophy for best all-around performance. And Ford's 225-h.p. engine smashed 30 world records at Kingman, Ariz. Truly, Ford goes first!

In Safety

The editors of "Motor Trend" voted Ford's Lifeguard Design "the top car advance" of 1956. It's a whole family of safety features to help protect you from injury in case of accident.

In Economy

In the Mobilgas Economy Run, a Ford V-8 won over all cars in its class. It carried more weight with greater gasoline economy per pound than any competitive car... "saves" as well as "eights".

The way a Ford performs, the way it saves, the way it protects you, go hand-in-hand with the way it looks and lasts. Ford's look was inspired by America's most exciting car, the Thunderbird. Its rugged K-bar frame and carefully-built body give it the endurance and reliability traditional with Ford. These are the facts behind Ford's reputation as the car that's worth more when you buy it... worth more when you sell it, too! Come in and let us show you!

American Lutherans Elect At 26th Annual Conclave

The Rev. Vernon Mohr of San Antonio, was named President of the Texas District of the AMERI-CAN LUTHERAN CHURCH in their 26th annual Convention, held in St. John's Lutheran Church, San Antonio, on Tuesday through Friday, April 3-6.

The Rev. Mohr, who has been pastor of St. John's Lutheran for 10 years, will succeed the Rev. C.
N. Roth of Seguin, who has been president of the church body since 1946. The Rev. Mohr said he felt the election to the office was tantamount to a Call and that his acceptance of the office would depend on his congregation releasing him to accept the position.

Attending the convention from Buckholts were the Rev. J. A.
Pietsch pastor of the Hope Lutheran Church and lay delegate, Lawrence Fox.

In addition to Rev. Mohr, other ciate secretary for the Sunday School Department of the BGCT,

Physical Education Building Ready For MH Baylor In Fall

Work on Goodman hall, physical education building under construction at Mary Hardin-Baylor is well past the halfway mark, Dr. Arthur Tyson, president, announced this week.

The estimated actual completion date of the $250,000 gymnasium is September 1, and the building is expected to be ready for the opening of the fall semester, September 17. Temple Housing corporation is contractor, and Wyatt C. Hedrick of Fort Worth is architect.

Erection of structural steel has been completed, and workmen are laying brick and setting wall stones, roughing in plumbing, heating and electric conduits. Windows are also being installed this week, college officials said.

The building will include a gymnasium and bleachers, a swimming pool, locker and shower rooms, recreation room, departmental library and three offices.
A gift of properties valued at approximately $100,000 by M. T.
Goodman, Port Isabel, in the fall of 1954, led the way for the building of the gymnasium.

Officers named were: Rev. Geo.
Krueger, Hallettsville, first vice president; Rev. A. H. Bohls, Yorktown, second vice president; Rev.
Kurt Hartmann, Pflugerville, was third vice president; Rev. E. A.
Heye, Taylor, secretary; and Mr.
Robert Pfennig, Austin, treasurer.
All except Krueger were re-elected to their offices.

Father Of Mrs. Leo Laake Recuperating At Daughters Home

The father of Mrs. Leo Laake is recuperating at the home of his move a cataract from his eye.

The operation was performed in a

Mrs. Laake reported late last week that her father is doing nicely and that he will stay with her until fully recuperated.

Half Of Cancers Can Be Detected By Sight; Touch

Cancer, the second leading cause of death, took the lives of 9,379 Texans last year. This means that a little over one person out of every 1000 of our population died from this disease during that period.

According to Dr. Henry A. Holle
Commissioner of Health, one-third of these deaths could have been prevented by earlier detection and prompt treatment. On this basis 3,126 Texans needlessly died of cancer in 1955, because proper treatment was begun too late.

There are some encouraging aspects in the fight against cancer.
Deaths from that disease among women in the United States have declined more than ten per cent in the past ten years.

Many thousands could be saved if men and women would have a complete physical examination once a year. Women over 35 should secure an X-ray for signs of lung cancer.

Dr. Holle says that at least 50 per cent of all cancers are accessible to examination by a physician through sight or touch.

Of all Americans who die of cancer today the deaths of one-third could be avoided if proper treatment were begun before the cancers spread. The profession of surgery is proof of this, as the latest figures show that cancer deaths among surgeons are only 66 per cent of the general rate.
Evidently surgeons not only have the proper knowledge of the facts about cancer, but act promptly on the basis of that knowledge.

Today cancer is being attacked by research within nearly every branch of science. Also, studies are being made of large numbers of people to discover if living conditions are in any way responsible for cancer.

"Who Knows What We'll Find!"

Dear Friends

As a part of their work in Humble's Refining Research Laboratory, Humble scientists bombard petroleum hydrocarbons with electrons in a 2-million volt
Van de Graaff Accelerator.

But if you ask one of these scientists what he expects to find, he'll answer, who knows!

For this is fundamental research.
Results may be quick or they may be a long time developing. Who knows?

... Perhaps the scientists will find a way to increase the yield of useful products from a barrel of crude oil.

... Perhaps they'll be able to make improvements in the fine products already supplied you.

... Perhaps they'll develop an entirely new group of petroleum products.

Who knows!

This much, however, is certain:
Humble research scientists at Baytown use every device of physics, chemistry, mathematics and mechanics to provide you with more and better petroleum products.

Two quick examples:
The specifications for Esso Extra gasoline, the formula for Humble Uniflo motor oil.
These, without question, are the finest products
you can use in your car.

Sincerely

Higher Rates, Re-ups Go In 649th's Diary

Receiving the promotions, it said were Specialist 3 Louis A. Krenke, who was upped a grade Jimmy L. Crook, who was appointed a Corporal. Crook is assigned as a squad leader in the Battery's Gun Section. Krenke is a mechanic in the unit's Maintenance Section. He is employed by Safeway supermarket here in Cameron.

Krenke also re-enlisted in Battery C several days ago. The other re-enlistment was made by Specialist 3 James P. Reichert, assigned as a radio operator in the Communications Section. Both Guardsmen re-upped for three year terms.

Jimmy Asher missed Church and Sunday School in Cameron for the first time in four years Easter. He picked a fine time to have "Pugh Monia", Rev. Russell Moseley, S.S. Supt. and chief of the deacons, Grady Cooper were out of town. So with none of them present the attendance was a record breaker. Hmmm. Makes one wonder. Reminds of the fellow who begged off jury duty. "You mean that firm can't get along without you for one week?" questioned the judge. "I'm positive it CAN, and I don't want them to find it out," said the venieman. Well, Jimmy had 'em fooled for four years now. Oh yes, and the preacher and Richard and Grady too. Lu Wane Asher did such a fine job (for daddy) that she further dispelled the myth of indispensability.

Fred, "Skinny" Switzer, the inimitable announcer and striking disc jockey at KMIL just aint losing weight on his three-day bannana diet. He wont believe that I once lost a POUND A DAY for thirty days, BUT I DID. I didn't tell him that I FOUND each one of them the same day I lost them. Freddie got a BIG RAISE recently. He was made PROMOTION MANAGER of Station KMIL (Cameron's most popular radio station). The first thing he promoted was a STRIKE of the disc jockeys.

Henry Dryer has a unique weather vane. When we asked him when it rained recently where it was he said it was in the garage at home. His wife called him to come home and put it out to measure the rain. "It's raining too hard," said Dryer. He likes to protect his purty equipment. And to think he is in the ROOFING business. When it's dry you don't need the roof patched and when it's raining IT IS TOO WET.

You will notice somewhere in this paper COACHES CORNER by Homer Tompkins. When he isn't teaching school or Sunday school or on the athletic field or running a school bus he lives with his family, part time at least, in that house on the east side of highway 77 at seventh street.

Here is a man's man who blew in to Cameron on one of those "Wester" from Slayton to take on a job in the athletic department under Leo (the Lion) Jackson.

subject of the fire department it was pointed out by councilman Brady that all emergency equipment, returning from a call are subject to all the traffic laws of private vehicles. He pointed out an instance of a fire truck being driven through a stop sign and red light upon returning from a fire and using the siren in so doing. This alleged infraction of the law was referred to the Fire committee to be handled.

A letter was received from Lonnie Armstrong asking for an increase in taxi fare. At this time the fare, in the first zone is 25 cents. Upon motion of Griffith the council allowed a ten cent increase for the first zone.

In a report on old committee work councilman Stidham reported that a number of "Foxholes" had been filled in the streets. In the new list of committee assignments Stidham was made chairman of the Printing committee.

An extension of a six inch water main from the Salem Road to Wilson-Ledbetter swimming pool a distance of 650 feet and a cost of $1,540 was ordered upon motion of Thompson, the water committee chairman.

Thompson in another motion which carried moved to extend sewer from Lamar Avenue east on 8th street to an area near the intersection of Milan.

Committee assignment made by Weems were: STREETS, chairman Roy Griffith with Brady and Thompson assisting; WATER AND SEWER chairman Thompson with Brady and Mondrik; FINANCE Charles Brady assisted by Griffith and Mondrik; POLICE Charles Brady chairman with Stidham and Mondrik assisting; TAX, chairman Stidham with Brady and Thompson assisting AIRPORT AND PARKS, Mondrik chairman with Griffith and Brady assisting ORDINANCES Thompson chairman with Stidham and Griffith; CEMETERY AND FIRE Griffith chairman with Stidham and Thompson assisting; PRINTING, Stidham with Griffith and Thompson assisting.

Former mayor Horstmann and outgoing councilman Schiller were present for the opening and the swearing in of Weems and Brady and departed with remarks. Horstmann said that he appreciated the diligence of the committee chairman which had worked for him and pointed to the "extra curricula" work accomplished by the committee members in getting necessary data.

Milton J. Schiller thanked the members with whom he had worked for the fine spirit in which they had carried on for the betterment of the city. At the expense of seeming sentimental Schiller said "I will always cherish the memories of my tenure on the council". In the heat of political campaigning he pointed out some things come out and are said that cause even the best of friends to be at odds but now that the campaigning is over he expressed the desire that all would work together for the advancement of the city and assured all present that they would individually and collectively have his best wishes.

Born April 1, 1896 in Austria she came to America at the age of eight with friends. Her parents planned to follow but were never able to come. Feels Lucky To Be American Enclosed herewith is my personal check to cover the payment due on my 1955 income tax.

After spending three years overseas I consider it a very great privilege to pay income tax. A lot of things I took for granted prior to service overseas, I learned to really appreciate after having to do without, plus seeing what the peoples in other parts of the world don't have, that I, as an American, have every day in life. (FREEDOM)

I say Americans are very lucky people; if more of them would only realize this fact they would be much better off.
